Assunto: Re: Permission to translate an article: Brazil

I would be pleased for you to translate it. I ask only the following:

1. Wherever you publish it, please send me the citation.
2. Please put my name on the author line.
3. Please include the following somewhere (a footnote would be fine): "This article initially appeared in 12 Green Bag 2d 337 (2009). It was translated into Portuguese by [insert your name] with the Author's consent."
4. Please send me a PDF copy of the published version.

As for a relationship between our universities, I am happy to try and facilitate that. What did you and your professor have in mind?

Best wishes,

Hillel

Dear Professor Hillel Y. Levin,

There are 3 possible places: a) the law journal of the master and doctoral Law program, b) the institutional publication of the research group that I'm a member (ISO - Inequality and Procedural Justice) and c) the law journal of the AGU (The Attorney General's Office). Our professor Dr. Jefferson Carús Guedes (professor from the master and doctoral Law program and Lawyer from the AGU) is also interested in an approach between the institutions, and also with you.

E.g.:

A) <http://www.publicacoesacademicas.uniceub.br/index.php/RBPP>

B) <http://plsql1.cnpq.br/buscaoperacional/detalhegrupo.jsp?grupo=30346018IPZBKR>

C) <http://www.agu.gov.br/page/download/index/id/7352103>

Dear Professor Hillel Y. Levin,

I am a student of the Master and Doctoral Law Programs of University Center of Brasília (UNICEUB), Brazil, and I would like to obtain the permission to translate (and publish) into Portuguese in a Brazilian Law Review an article written by you:

1) The Food Stays in the Kitchen: Everything I Needed to Learn About Statutory Interpretation I Learned by the Time I Was Nine, 12 Green Bag 337 (2009).

It is a very interesting article, in fact, excellent. The publication of the translation would get free access to the public with purely academic purpose. Without pay because of free access.

Thanks in advance for your attention,

Best,
